

There is no limit on how many times you can access the visitor/travel benefit throughout the year.

You're covered when you travel with SummaCare!

Attention Snowbirds: If you travel to Arizona, Florida or Texas* regularly, go with confidence knowing you're covered!

Going away for the winter or just taking a trip? With SummaCare Medicare Advantage, your plan goes with you! When you visit Arizona, Florida, or Texas, you'll get your plan benefits at the in-network level at any Medicare-approved provider – during temporary travel away from home.

Members with SummaCare's Quartz (HMO), Topaz (HMO) and Ruby (HMO) plans also gain additional travel coverage in North Carolina and South Carolina.

Members are required to use SummaCare network providers when using their Part D prescription drug benefit (Part D prescription coverage not included on Amber (HMO) plan). At SummaCare, it's personal—with coverage that follows you when you travel.

Our plans also have built-in worldwide emergency, urgent care and ambulance coverage, so you can travel worry free.
